

---

“Reversing the American Obesity Epidemic” Highlighting the Education Program are:

- A Keynote address by George Bray, MD, an international expert on obesity who will set the stage with a discussion of current thought regarding obesity as a disease....
- Daily plenary sessions on the diagnosis and treatment of obesity with special sessions by the subspecialty sections on the impact of obesity in their areas....
- A moving presentation on leadership, overcoming adversity and humanitarianism by Eric Greitens, Rhodes Scholar, former Navy Seal and author of The Heart and the Fist...
- Important sessions providing information on upcoming requirements for Osteopathic Continuing Certification and Maintenance of Licensure....
- A series of sessions on practice management and technology topics designed to provide the knowledge needed to increase practice efficiency, improve patient care and maximize reimbursement....
- A hypertension symposium providing the latest information on hypertension and lipid reduction, NIH obesity guidelines and more....
- Daily luncheon symposia on heart disease, COPD and other areas of interest....
- Registration includes welcome reception, daily breakfasts, luncheon symposia and all educational sessions.

---

Up to 37 hours of 1A internal medicine CME credits is anticipated. Further details concerning the education program, hotel and car rental discounts, off-site tours and more are enclosed. REGISTER TODAY! The pre-registration discount expires September 21, 2011.