MEMORANDUM

To: Internal Medicine and Subspecialty Students, Residents and Fellows
From: Brian J. Donadio, FACOI, Executive Director
Subj: Poster Contest Cash Awards!
Date: February 15, 2019

The ACCOI is pleased to announce the 2019 awards for Original Research Abstract and Case Presentation Posters prepared by students, residents, or fellows in internal medicine and its subspecialties.

Cash awards of $1,500, $1,000, and $500 will be made for the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place original research abstract posters as judged at the 2019 Convention, October 30 November 3, 2019 in Phoenix, AZ. In addition, the top three finishers will present their work at a plenary session of the Convention and receive reimbursement of their travel costs (1-2 nights at hotel and coach air travel), if not paid by your training program.

Abstract subjects are to be related to internal medicine and its subspecialties. There are no restrictions as to content, and the entry may represent, but is not limited to: original research, a retrospective analysis, a prospective analysis, etc.

A second category for competition will include an interesting case or several cases analyzed with a review of the literature and supporting or refuting contemporary attitudes in literature. There will be separate cash awards of $500, $250 and $100 for the top three case presentation posters. These awards will be presented during the plenary session mentioned above. Funding constraints do not allow reimbursement for travel for the top three finishers in the case presentation competition.

Instructions for the Submission of Abstracts are included with this mailing. Please clearly specify in which category (original research or case presentations) you are submitting your entry. The deadline for submission by email to katie@acoi.org or fax to 301-231-6099 is July 31, 2019.

I would strongly encourage you to enter this contest. This is a great way to begin disseminating your finding. In addition to the judging in Phoenix, AZ, a first-rate convention is planned. Attendance at the convention meets the Basic Standards requirement that all residents attend at least one educational meeting during the course of their training program.

Please feel free to call the ACCOI at any time you may need assistance.
